Strike a Pose at Lau Pa Sat's Light Up the Sky Light Installation

Taking over the Robinson Entrance, a striking light-up arch inspired by the curved rooftops of traditional Korean hanok homes pays homage to Korean culture and sets the mood from day to night. At nightfall, the installation glows in vibrant pink hues, creating the perfect backdrop for fans to recreate their best dance moves, concert looks or group selfies.

Fans can also dance as if it's your last with a series of high-energy K-pop dance performances throughout the week. Catch live performances by T.Dolls Dance, a Singapore-based international K-pop dance cover group made up of passionate dancers from all around the world, on 28 November at 9pm, and on 29 and 30 November at 8.30pm, as they bring crowd-favourite choreographies to life at Lau Pa Sat's centrestage.

Munchi Pancakes also released their Charcoal Strawberry Chee-soo Munchi ($2.40), featuring a charcoal-infused pancake filled with housemade cream cheese mixed with real fresh strawberry bits. The result is a sweet-yet-edgy treat that perfectly complements the event's black-and-pink theme.

Over at Kopi Kiosk, the Grass Jelly Rosé Drink ($3) is a vibrant introduction to a well-loved local classic. This refreshing pink drink blends fragrant Bandung with silky black grass jelly, a traditional dessert ingredient enjoyed across Southeast Asia, creating a smooth and cooling treat that is perfect for Singapore's tropical weather. It is an ideal pick-me-up for tourists exploring the festivities at Lau Pa Sat.

Whether you're here for the food, the photos or the dance performances, Lau Pa Sat invites local and international visitors alike to immerse themselves in the K-pop spirit from 21 to 7 December. Follow @laupasat.sg for updates and event highlights.

About Lau Pa Sat

Established in 1894, Lau Pa Sat is Singapore's most iconic hawker market, a must-visit food and retail destination for locals and tourists alike. With more than 130 years of history, it boasts over 80 F&B stalls offering a diverse culinary experience, from local and Asian to Western and Middle Eastern cuisines.

Lau Pa Sat is also home to Singapore's largest open-air Satay Street - the one and only destination for the most authentic street hawker experience. Indulge in delectable grilled skewers under the stars.

This modern hawker market offers convenience with fast and easy payments via the FairPrice Group app and e-vouchers. Visitors can also immerse themselves in history through the AR Heritage Trail and engaging experiences throughout the hawker market.

With these unique experiences, Lau Pa Sat has been lauded by travelers worldwide, earning a coveted spot among the top 10% of global attractions in the 2024 TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Awards.

About Food Folks

Award Winning Food Folks @ Lau Pa Sat is Singapore's first locally-focused "Everything Food" concept that blends food retail products and F&B establishments within a gazetted monument. The purpose-driven retail concept features more than 75% local food brands including exclusive home-grown, 'Made with Passion' brands found only in Singapore, providing a launch pad to help local food retail and F&B brands grow and establish their brand presence.

The award-winning retail destination has up to 100 local & international brands with 2,000 products to excite & delight shoppers in one food space so people can eat their favourite hawker food and shop unique food brands to their heart's content. A whimsical artistic expression about food by Tan Zi Xi (MessyMsxi) can also be found on a mural inside Food Folks, completed in 2020 when Food Folks was launched.
